Delivering on the Future

We are both Germany's postal operator and the global market leader for logistics. Our Deutsche Post and DHL brands stand for a wide range of easily accessible services and sustainable solutions for the transport of letters, goods and information. With around 500,000 employees in more than 220 countries and territories, we are one of the world's most important employers. As the largest company in our industry, we take our responsibility to the environment seriously. We have developed GoGreen – our environmental initiative that institutes a systematic approach to achieving our climate protection target. www.dpwn.com

Deutsche Post

Deutsche Post delivers mail and parcels in Germany, and we are specialists in dialogue marketing and press distribution services. In Germany, we operate the largest network of fixed-location retail outlets – around 14,000 – where Postbank services are also offered. At the heart of our nationwide transport and delivery network are 82 mail centres processing around 70 million items per working day and 33 parcel centres, where on six days a week our handling volume exceeds 2.5 million units. An annual volume of around 7.5 billion items makes us the cross-border mail market leader and Europe's largest postal operator. www.deutschepost.com

DHL

DHL delivers time-critical shipments as well as goods and merchandise by road, rail, air or sea. We transport courier and express shipments via one of the world's most extensive networks – our gateway to over 220 countries and territories. We are the world's largest air and ocean freight operator and one of the leading overland freight forwarders in Europe and the Middle East. In 65 countries all over the world, we offer customised solutions in outsourced contract logistics at every link in the supply chain. Our tailored solutions for both digital and print information round off our comprehensive offering. www.dhl.com
